Charlie Wilson has served as Senior Vice President of Buckner Retirement Services since March 2010. He currently leads the BRS team and oversees roughly 900 employees across the five existing Buckner retirement communities.

Wilson joined BRS in 2000 as Director of Quality Improvement and Regulatory Compliance, then went on to serve as Vice President and Director of Operations from 2004 to 2010.

From 1999 to 2000, Wilson worked for C.C. Young, a retirement community, as Administrator. From 1996 to 1999, he served as Healthcare Administrator for Trinity Terrace retirement community.

Wilson has served as the President of the Society for the Advancement of Gerontological Environments (SAGE) Federation and served as the President of the Texas chapter of SAGE from 2006 through 2008. He also served on the Visioning Board for the International Council on Active Aging (ICAA). With LeadingAge, a national association of non-profit senior living organizations, Wilson has served on numerous committees including Culture Change, CQI, Public Policy, and Managed Care committees. He has also served on the Professional Advisory committee for the Visiting Nurses Association and the Texas Wellspring Steering committee.

Wilson received his Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Southwestern Adventist University in 1992 and a Master of Business Administration in May of 2007 from Southwestern Adventist University.

“Buckner Retirement Services exists to enrich the lives of senior adults through active living and expert care.”
